Welcome to this comfortable and stylish 1940 village charmer with an appealing blend of original details and modern updates. You'll find classic bungalow elements in the wide front porch, handsome wood entry door, room-dividing columns between the formal living and dining rooms, and great first floor flow. There is a smaller sunny bedroom off the living area at the front and full bathroom tucked behind a pantry next to the cute retro kitchen. The rear addition with vaulted ceilings and skylights is a special feature of this home, providing a bright, open space to unwind or gather. Exit through french doors to a small rear deck and fully fenced yard that feels like a secret garden tucked between the houses with thoughtful seating areas and perennial gardens. Upstairs, you'll find plenty of storage, a bedroom or office, a cheerful full bathroom, and another larger bedroom with distant views of the Catskill Mountains beyond the rooftops. The super tidy full basement offer more storage and creative opportunity for a workshop or other uses. This house lives larger than its size suggests! Small garage, off street parking, replacement windows and newer mechanicals round out this attractive property, walkable to village amenities and ready for its next chapter.
