Escape to this serene summer sanctuary tucked along a scenic hillside in Woodstock, just off Upper Byrdcliffe Road as you ascend toward Overlook Mountain. Just five minutes from the center of town, yet feeling completely immersed in the woods, this tranquil retreat blends nature and comfort, offering treetop views with glimpses of distant mountain peaks--and a gentle stream running through the property, adding to the sense of total escape. The spacious home features five bedrooms and three and a half bathrooms, ideal for hosting family and friends. A light-filled sunroom, lush with greenery, flows seamlessly into a cozy living area. The living room is anchored by dramatic two-story windows that frame the surrounding forest, creating a calming, immersive backdrop. A dining area set beside the fireplace connects easily to the open kitchen, where a breakfast bar keeps everyone engaged while meals are prepared. The layout is designed for both gathering and ease, making everyday living and entertaining feel effortless. For a truly unique touch, a hidden door--revealed by tipping a book--opens to a private entertainment space complete with a pool table, sound system, and fitness area. Just outside, a dedicated wellness deck offers a sauna, hot tub, and cold plunge, creating a private spa experience surrounded by nature. Steeped in Woodstock's rich musical history, the home has quietly hosted some of the world's most celebrated musicians, adding to its creative and inspiring energy. While it may be hard to leave, the home is ideally located to enjoy some of the region's best offerings. Woodstock's vibrant dining scene includes favorites like Silvia and Good Night, alongside a rich mix of music, art galleries, and wellness studios. Kingston is just a 20-minute drive, and the renowned antiquing destination of Hudson is only 45 minutes away. Rooted in the area's creative legacy, this home offers both retreat and inspiration, with modern comforts including central air, laundry, and ample space to unwind.
