Step into a true mid-century modern gem at 32 Lynette Boulevard in Kingston, set on a desirable corner lot with an in-ground Gunite pool and covered carport. This three-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath home offers approximately 2,700 square feet of living space and is perfect for those who appreciate the analog era--vinyl records, lava lamp ambiance, shag rugs, conversational pits, and fireside evenings with a tumbler of Johnnie Walker Red. Defined by clean, straight geometric lines and the use of wood and stone, the home retains its classic mid-century bones and offers a strong canvas for thoughtful renovation and design. Mid-century modern design emphasizes seamless indoor-outdoor living, and this property provides the ideal foundation to enhance that connection through light, flow, and spatial openness. The in-ground gunite pool is complemented by a pool house with a shower, adding convenience. For the right visionary buyer, this is more than a home--it's an opportunity to create something truly special. Ideally located in Kingston on a prominent corner lot, the property offers convenience, presence, and strong long-term potential. While the home experienced a small interior fire, it is salvageable, presenting a rare opportunity to restore and reimagine a distinctive residence. Once thoughtfully restored, this home will stand out and be the talk of the town. Ideal for an investor, builder, or end-user with vision who recognizes the value in location, scale, and architectural potential. This is a rare opportunity to reimagine a mid-century property and create meaningful long-term value through thoughtful renovation and design.
