Nestled on 3.7 private acres in Saugerties, recently custom built 1442 Glasco Turnpike offers a quiet, design-forward escape where nature takes center stage. The grounds are an open celebration of bedrock, trees, and peaceful clearings ideal for stargazing, with a dedicated fire pit area that invites slow evenings under the sky surrounded by the sounds of the Hudson Valley. Inside, the home balances clean modern lines with warmth and texture. Vaulted ceilings create a sense of tranquility in the main living space, while a fireplace anchors the room and adds comfort through all seasons. Oversized windows are thoughtfully placed throughout, framing the surrounding landscape as living art and allowing natural light to shift beautifully throughout the day. The open-concept kitchen and dining areas are designed for both everyday living and effortless entertaining. At its center, the kitchen connects directly to a standout screened-in patio--an extension of the living space that truly defines the home. Outfitted with Bromic heaters and a custom pass-through window, this covered outdoor room blurs the line between indoors and out, making it equally suited for summer dinners and crisp fall evenings. On the main level, the primary bedroom and ensuite are drenched in pattern and color, a theme that flows naturally throughout the home. Two additional well-proportioned bedrooms, a striking shared bath, a cozy reading nook, and a full laundry area are all finished with a clean, modern sensibility to round out this level. The layout is flexible and comfortable, ideal for full-time living, weekend use, or hosting guests. Conveniently located on the edge of Woodstock with a Saugerties address, this home is in an area that may be attractive for short-term rental use and currently operates as a successful Airbnb; buyers should independently confirm all rules and regulations with the town. The location is ideal for those seeking easy access from the George Washington Bridge while staying close to some of the area's best amenities and outdoor destinations. Shop for organic groceries at Sunflower Market, dine at local favorites like Silvia and Good Night, rent paddleboards on the Esopus, or spend weekends at the Saugerties Farmers Market.
