This uptown 2-family is located near the Historic Stockade District with its abundance of restaurants, shops, and weekly farmer's market. The building includes two 1-bedroom apartments with a good-sized back yard and off-street parking. Great opportunity to live in one unit and rent out the other or could be used as a mother daughter set up. Both units are vacant. Past rent values can be provided which were below market value. Listing agent is related to the seller."
