Beautiful one bedroom apartment for rent in a charming restored two family home nestled on the hill with lovely views of the Rondout district. Short distance from the Hudson River and the Rondout Creek, this apartment is located near the center of the revitalized downtown, yet far enough away to feel the calm and beauty of the surrounding Hudson Valley. The Kitchen gets beautiful afternoon sun! Updates include new cabinets with glass fronts and custom lighting, granite counters, along with a granite coffee bar with stools looking out over the Rondout Creek. Updated bath with tub and new vanity. The cozy apartment also has a dining room/office area which seamlessly blends into a living room with original wide plank floors and large windows with views of downtown Kingston. The bedroom has a double closet with shelves and storage. Access is either from the kitchen to a private deck in the back or through the front door two flights down on Hone St. Apartment #3 is separately metered with gas, electric, water and central air. This 19th C. charmer is a short distance to the Rondout village shops, cafes and the Hudson River Maritime Museum. Just a mile from Health Alliance Hospital. Tenant has covered parking for one car! Tons of natural light; this jewel is a must see!
