The Hudson River has inspired artists, writers, and dreamers for centuries. At 75 Turkey Point Drive, you don't just admire it from a distance - you live above it. From the moment you arrive - past fieldstone retaining walls, lush flowering gardens, and a welcoming portico entry - it is clear this is no ordinary property. Inside, a soaring great room anchors the home with a breathtaking wall of floor-to-ceiling windows rising to a dramatic cathedral peak, framing the Hudson like a living painting. Rich hardwood floors, vaulted ceilings, and elegant wood-trimmed windows create a space that is at once grand and deeply livable. The dining room offers its own river-facing picture window, while a spacious sunroom opens directly onto the upper deck. The artisan kitchen is a showpiece: custom wormy chestnut cabinetry - crafted from a rare reclaimed wood - surrounds a Thermador range, Sub-Zero refrigerator, and quartz countertops, while a generous walk-in pantry makes the space as functional as it is beautiful. A first-floor bedroom and full bath offer flexibility for guests or single-level living. Above, the lofted primary suite features cathedral ceilings, a walk-in closet, and a spa-like bath with soaking tub and walk-in shower. The lower level expands the home's versatility with additional living and sleeping space, sliding glass doors opening onto an outdoor patio, and plumbing in place for a future bath - well suited for a seamless guest suite conversion. Central A/C and an integrated humidity control system ensure year-round comfort and superior air quality. A whole-house generator provides peace of mind in every season. The exterior is designed for immersion in the landscape. Multiple vantage points include a wraparound deck and an elevated river deck, positioned to capture the wide, glittering expanse of the Hudson, where eagles soar. Curated grounds feature ornamental gardens, raised garden beds and a tranquil koi pond, offering a sense of deep privacy. A two-car garage and generous paved driveway complete the arrival experience, while a discreet shed tucked beneath the sunroom provides ample storage for garden tools. Ideally located just two hours from New York City, the property offers easy access to the vibrant cultural scene of Kingston, the charm of historic Saugerties, and the creative energy of Woodstock. For outdoor enthusiasts, Sojourner Truth State Park is just moments away, providing scenic riverfront trails and direct water access. Properties of such remarkable beauty and privacy, along a river as iconic as the Hudson, simply do not come along often.
