At the gentle rise of Voorhees Avenue, where Uptown Kingston begins to feel like a village within a city, this brick Cape Cod sits on its sunny corner lot with the kind of quiet confidence that comes from being both charming and deeply practical. Three blocks from the historic Stockade District, surrounded by sidewalks, parks, and the hum of local life, 24 Voorhees offers a lifestyle that's walkable, connected, and wonderfully easy to love. The covered front porch sets the tone with a place for morning coffee, neighborly waves, and watching the seasons shift across this very manageable lot. Inside, the home unfolds with warmth and simplicity: three bedrooms, one full bath, and an eat-in kitchen that feels like the heart of the house. Light moves easily through the rooms, giving the home an inviting, grounded feel. A sunny back deck extends the living space outdoors, overlooking four small annual gardens ready for flowers, herbs, or vegetables. The walk-out basement provides a flexible space with a one-car garage tucked beneath, offering storage, workshop potential, or room to grow. With natural gas, central air, a brand-new roof, and an updated energy-efficient on demand water-heater system, the home blends classic Kingston character with comfort. But what truly elevates life here is the location. Uptown Kingston is right at your fingertips with just a short stroll to the Stockade District's beloved businesses like Rough Draft, Black Eyed Suzie's, Lola's, Chloe, Deising's Bakery, Hotel Kinsley, Rhino Records, Lovefield Vintage, and countless others that give this neighborhood its creative pulse. Walk to the bus stop, restaurants, two breweries (Kingston Standard and Blue Duck), Assembly, the Saturday Farmer's Market, Andretta Pool and Splash Pad, Dietz Stadium, and the Kingston Greenline Rail Trail. Forsyth Park is practically your backyard, offering tennis courts, a playground, and even a small petting zoo (a rare and delightful neighbor!). And with the Thruway just 5 to 10 minutes away, commuting and weekend getaways are effortless. 24 Voorhees is the kind of home that makes daily life feel happier. A place where you can settle in, plant something new, and truly love where you live.
