A bright and sunny Colonial gem just minutes into the center of Woodstock! This home is set far back and hidden from the road creating a true sense of privacy. Coming down the driveway, you begin to see the 1.47 acre yard wrapping around the house bordered by a charming stone wall. Once inside, the spacious living room is on your left with built-in bookcases and a fireplace with a wood burning stove insert. Perfect for cozy winter evenings with the manicured yard never out of your line of site. Directly in front of you is the main dining room with space to gather friends and family. The bright and light kitchen is to the right with solid wood cabinets, quartz counters and a new stainless range, microwave and dishwasher. The large island is perfect for quick dinners, buffets, and homework! Off the kitchen is a bright breakfast room. Heading back to the dining room you pass a half bath with tons of storage. Once in the dining room, straight ahead of you is the breathtaking sunroom bathed in light from the huge windows looking out to the yard. This comfortable space has tons of room for a large plush couch for movie night! Sliders take you out to the very private yard. You step off the deck onto the paver patio and dining area to a large built-in fire pit for starry nights and s'mores. The custom gazebo has an overhead fan and electricity for lighting. There is a large trex deck built around an immaculate above ground heated salt water pool with sparkling waters. Enjoy a day swimming and grilling or just relax on the vast lawn and catch some rays. You are completely surrounded by dense foliage for the ultimate privacy! Next to a covered wood storage rack, there is a whole house stand-by generator for your peace of mind. Back inside, by the front door are the stairs that will take you to the four bedrooms. There is a sunny and spacious primary ensuite with a walk-in closet, a stylish full bath and three more roomy bedrooms with a large and beautiful hall bath. All the bedrooms have spacious closets. The hall bath has a walk in shower and a large soaking tub to relax with a good book. Back downstairs, there is a mudroom coming in from the two car garage with custom cabinets and a large open space ideal for all of your storage needs. The last place to see is the laundry room with yet more storage. If being just minutes into the center of Woodstock is not enough, this home is close to hiking, the rail trail, the Ashokan Reservoir and is a quick drive to the Thruway. Just beyond is Kingston which has many fantastic restaurants and shops! This home is a must see!
