WHAT IS PROPERTY PERFECTION? When the location of a home is highly coveted, and the thoughtful renovation is the perfect mix of practicality and creative use of space... AND when the vibe is an uncommon mix of mid-century and cute-as-a-button cottage: 12 Maryland Court in Stone Ridge is all this and so much more! Set at the quiet end of a peaceful dead-end road just off Peak Road, this freshly renovated mid-century ranch sits on two wooded lots where the birds sing, the pines are fragrant and wildlife serves as entertainment. Built in the 1960's this easeful one level home was gut-renovated to the studs, the siding, roof, and windows are all new and the 1,800+ sq ft one-level interior has been reimagined with a clear design sensibility: white-painted beam ceilings, blonde oak -look flooring that creates a clean and continuous anchor throughout, an art-worthy kitchen with slate-gray shaker cabinetry, thick quartz counters, stainless appliances, and windows that frame views of the forest. The renovated baths are just right too: black tile floors, a floating wood-grain vanity, globe sconces, matte black fixtures. During the renovation the floor plan was revised to great effect. A spacious entry greets visitors; the primary suite is tucked privately to the side (carved from what was once that mid-century staple - a rarely used carport). The two additional bedrooms occupy the back of the house, served by a second full bath. Mini-split heat pumps handle the climate, the new privacy fence encloses a beautiful yard, and Stone Ridge's historic village with coffee, groceries, and weekend pleasures are minutes away. Welcome to a beautifully scenic turnkey backdrop to YOUR future Upstate life.
