WhistleWood Farm A rare multi-use estate set on just under 40 acres in the heart of Rhinebeck, NY. Currently operating as a successful bed-and-breakfast, event venue, and horse boarding facility, WhistleWood Farm offers exceptional flexibility for both residential and commercial buyers seeking a true Hudson Valley destination property. Comprised of three parcels totaling nearly 40 acres, the property is equally suited as a private compound, gentleman's farm, equestrian retreat, boutique hospitality venture, or wellness-focused escape. Existing hospitality and equestrian infrastructure provide a strong foundation for continued or expanded use. The main residence spans approximately 4,500 square feet and features 5 bedrooms, 5 full baths, and 2 kitchens—offering remarkable flexibility for private living, guest accommodations, or hospitality operations. Complementing the main house is an beautifully appointed 1,500-square-foot carriage house with three bedrooms and three baths, rich in character and perfectly suited for guests, extended stays, or expanded event and hospitality use. Walking trails through the woods create a rare sense of privacy and connection to the landscape just moments from the heart of Rhinebeck Village—with its celebrated dining, farm-to-table restaurants, boutiques, and nearby Amtrak access. For the tennis enthusiast, premier tennis facilities conveniently located next door further enhance the property's lifestyle appeal. Open meadows, mature trees, and a coveted Village-adjacent setting make WhistleWood Farm a truly rare offering—equally compelling as a private estate, hospitality investment, or legacy property in the Hudson Valley. Additional features include solar power, further enhancing the property's efficiency and long-term sustainability.
