Tucked along the sparkling banks of the Plattekill Creek, this enchanting two-bedroom cottage is more than a getaway -- it's a front-row seat to the wild beauty of the Catskills. Towering dramatic cliffs rise above the water, creating a breathtaking natural backdrop where bald eagles soar overhead and mink wander the shoreline below. Step out onto the back deck and into your own private swimming hole -- a hidden oasis for sun-soaked afternoons, morning plunges, and unforgettable evenings beneath the stars. Every moment here feels suspended in time: the sound of rushing water, the glow of golden sunsets on the cliffs, the unmistakable feeling of escape. Perfectly positioned near Kingston, Saugerties, Wyndham, Belleayre, and the very best of the Catskills, this waterfront retreat offers the rare balance of secluded tranquility and year-round adventure. Whether you're seeking a peaceful sanctuary, a weekend escape, or a place to gather for generations of memories, this magical Creekside cottage delivers.
