Every visitor says the same thing, "all this AND you are in the center of Kingston!" The home on this exceptional private estate is perfectly situated on nearly five acres on a raised plateau unseen from the street below. Up the driveway the house reveals itself and you see why this generational home inspires images of a family wedding, or a beloved daughter coming down the grand stairs on prom night. Once inside the gracious entry hall, lit by one of the home's three crystal chandeliers, you look to the right and see the family room filled with morning sunlight and high ceilings. To your left is the formal sitting room sharing the same garden views through the huge windows. Across the front of the house, there is one of two main floor en suite bedrooms, this one with its own entrance. Light a fire in the dining room for intimate dinner parties under the chandelier at the table set for 2 or 12. The wall of floor to ceiling windows looks west to the garden and pool ringed by hydrangeas bringing the outdoors in. Next to the dining room is a bright south and west facing room with a closet and full bath. If a fifth bedroom is not needed, this would make an ideal office or den! Overlooking the pool is the chef's custom kitchen, huge and bright with large windows above the apron front farm sink. The vast quartz counters and high-end stainless appliances are second only to the abundant storage throughout! The breakfast room beside the kitchen has enormous windows and French doors leading out to the pool. Once outside, you can enjoy the heated salt water pool or lounge on a chaise enjoying the garden. There is more than enough room for a grill and a few umbrellas to shade your friends and family on lazy summer afternoons. Enjoy a walk around your endless lawns completely sheltered from view in every direction. Back inside, at the top of the stairs are three huge panoramic windows looking west, ideal for a book and a glass of wine at sunset, or a quiet afternoon nap. At the front of the house, there is a very private primary suite with mountain views and room for a seating area when you need to escape. A large spa bath awaits you for a warm soothing soak in the tub or slip into the shower and wash the day away. On the other side of the house from your bedroom escape are two bedrooms joined by a stylish jack-and-jill bath. Up another flight and you are in the finished attic with double height vaulted ceilings. This space, which is not included in the square footage, has a large central room and two side rooms. The sky is the limit for how you can use this extraordinary space. This home has been effectively built this very year. What does that mean for you? You can focus on enjoying life knowing that your home is complete! This house features a new driveway, beams and steel columns in the basement, on-demand heating, air conditioning, water heater, floors throughout, windows, doors (including the garage and garage door openers), rain gutters and all 7 baths as well as the custom designed kitchen. The home has been re-plumbed and re-wired with new lighting inside and out. The heated salt water pool was just installed with state of the art equipment and surrounded by a precision laid bluestone patio. There is new landscaping surrounding the house and the front lawn has two large stone circles, formerly a fountain, which can be restored or used as a great fire pit! When it is time to go out, you can walk right into the Stockade District for restaurants, galleries and shopping. You are close to the thruway and walking distance to the Trailways bus. Despite its grand facade and grounds, this is a comfortable home and the rooms have a gentle human scale, ideal for big parties or quiet evenings watching a movie. Welcome home.
