This Old Hurley Charmer situated on a .64 acre lot in this Quaint Little Hamlet has a beautifully landscaped yard with gorgeous perennials and bluestone walls as a backdrop. Perched up above the grounds is a large private covered open porch offering endless hours of relaxation and additional outdoor space. This unique home has an open floor plan with vaulted ceilings, pine floors and a guest room/home office with it's own entrance. A lower-level Den and Laundry room/half bath has its own ground level entrance and driveway. There is also a matching garage with an additional driveway on the other side of the property. The garage is "as is" and will need some structural work concerning the blocks, but is well worth it at this price. Approx. 90 minutes out of NYC and close to the Old Hurley Main Street with it's Stone Homes, Small Town Parade and Festivals. Just minutes to The Hurley Rail Trail and The Historic Uptown Kingston Stockade Area.
