Step into this meticulously maintained and tastefully updated Woodstock split-level. Set way back from the road on one beautifully landscaped acre, featuring stately mature shade trees, ornamental shrubs, huge rhododendrons and plenty of sun. The interior of the home was just completely repainted including the garage. The main living level has been renovated to create a new, more modern great room. The dinning room and living room flow seamlessly into a lovely, eat-in kitchen featuring a large L shaped island with gorgeous quartz counter tops. Both the living area and bedrooms feature original oak hardwood flooring, giving the home a warm wonderful feel. Just a few steps down you'll discover a spacious family-room designed for comfort and with a handsome brick fireplace for cozy winter nights and convenient half bath, which could easily be upgraded to a full. From the main living level, it's just few steps up to three nicely sized bedrooms, one of which is currently being used as an office. The primary bedroom has an ensuite half bath, with the full bath just steps down the hall. Outside you will discover beautifully landscaped paradise with a great deck. Access the deck from the dining room, which leads down to a small patio, featuring a stunning 6-person Hot Spring Spa all ensconced within towering hardwoods and conifers. It's a great house on a great parcel and in an even more incredible location. Vandale Road connects Route 28 to Zena Road, which ideally locates the home within minutes to the Village of Woodstock, 10 minutes from uptown Kingston and the Town of Ulster Retail center, all from a quiet country setting.
