This is not your typical 1-bedroom rental. At 1,780 square feet across two stories plus a finished basement, this standalone accessory dwelling in sought-after Stone Ridge lives far more like a single-family home than its bedroom count suggests. Tucked at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac on a pristine 3.3-acre parcel in the Onteora School District, the privacy is real. Windows frame sweeping Catskills views, and the only neighbors you'll notice are the mountains. A spacious deck invites you to linger over morning coffee or sunset skies. Step inside to warm oak flooring and an open-plan living area with a full kitchen featuring brand new appliances including a refrigerator, range, and dishwasher, along with abundant storage. Upstairs, an expansive one-bedroom suite with a huge walk-in closet and marble en-suite bath feels like a proper retreat. Downstairs, the finished basement offers in-unit laundry and gives guests their own private space to settle in and unwind. Practical details throughout include central vacuum, high-speed internet, and a well-designed mudroom/breezeway entry. When you're ready to venture out, Shokan, Woodstock, Kingston, and the Stone Ridge village center are all within easy reach. Impeccable finishes, an estate-style setting, and space that actually fits your life. Rare for a rental.
