Nestled within the sought-after lakeside community of Sepasco Village in the Town of Rhinebeck, this spacious and meticulously maintained 2,800-square-foot home offers an exceptional blend of comfort, flexibility, and Hudson Valley living. Featuring four bedrooms and three-and-one-half baths, the thoughtfully designed floor plan includes primary suites on both the main and second levels, making it ideal for a variety of living arrangements. Designed for today's lifestyle, the home offers an abundance of versatile living space, including a kitchen, dining room, living room, den, family room, office, gym, media/game room, and four generously proportioned bedrooms. Whether working from home, entertaining guests, pursuing hobbies, or accommodating multi-generational living, this home easily adapts to your needs. Outdoor living is equally inviting, with an expansive deck that includes both open-air and beautifully screened-in areas, creating wonderful spaces for dining, relaxing, and entertaining. The fenced backyard is spacious and offers endless possibilities for recreation, gardening, and pets. Residents enjoy access to Lake Sepasco, a motor-free glacial lake that is not open to the public. Spend your days swimming, paddleboarding, kayaking, fishing, or enjoying lakeside picnics in this peaceful natural setting just minutes from the Village of Rhinebeck. Located within the Rhinebeck Central School District, the property is also convenient to highly regarded public and private schools, children's camps, sporting and social clubs, and the region's renowned equestrian facilities, riding trails, fox hunting, polo grounds, fly-fishing, hiking, skiing and more. Ideally situated in the heart of the Hudson Valley, the property is approximately 5 minutes to Rhinebeck, 7 minutes to Red Hook, 10 minutes to the Amtrak station in Rhinecliff, 30 minutes to Poughkeepsie and Metro-North trains to Grand Central Terminal, 20 minutes to Kingston, 25 minutes to Millbrook, 30 minutes to Hudson, and two hours from New York City by car. Don't pass this one by. This is town and country living at its finest.
