Own a piece of history with the beloved Lily House. Built in 1910, this sun-drenched home offers over 3,000 square feet of timeless character, ready for your thoughtful updates and personal vision. Set on beautifully landscaped grounds with seasonal views of the scenic Esopus Creek, you will enjoy the sweet sounds of nature. The home features five bedrooms and three full baths, with spacious, light-filled interiors that retain the warmth and charm of a bygone era. A generous living room with a wood-burning fireplace provides an inviting gathering space, while a separate living wing offers added flexibility with a private bedroom, full bath and large sitting room, ideal for guests, extended family, or a home office. The generous kitchen is bright and airy and overlooks the perennial gardens. An additional first floor bedroom and bath provides for convenient living. The second floor features 3 additional bedrooms, office and full bath with claw foot tub, plenty of room for all! Modern improvements include owned rooftop solar panels, a whole-house generator, and a UV water filtration system. Outside, mature gardens frame the home and enhance its peaceful setting. Ready for its next chapter, Lily House is a rare opportunity to restore and reimagine a truly distinctive historic property while preserving its enduring character.
