This Mid-Century Kingston Cape with a Cottage Appeal is set on a quiet residential street in the Roosevelt Park neighborhood and close to all this small City has to offer. An Historic Uptown Stockade area, Downtown Waterfront and a Thriving Mid Town Arts and Culture Scene. Surrounded by beautiful perennials and amongst other charming homes with streets perfect for walking, jogging and biking. Also, walkable to the recently renovated Loughran Park nearby with pickleball, a playground, picnic area and so much more. This home offers many nice details including hardwood floors, a living room with a brick fireplace and a picture window overlooking a beautiful front yard. A 1950s storybook front door greets you and a large family room/dining area has access to an enclosed porch /mudroom and nice deck to a private backyard that is perfect for gardening and picnics. Also, there are 3 bedrooms, a guestroom, a home office and a full walk out basement including a playroom. A major weatherization project done last year included doorway drafts, a new 200-amp electric panel and insulation of the basement along with the upstairs roof. In addition, the roof is approx. 9 years old on a 30 yr plus shingle, the chimney flues were just cleaned and a new crown applied, the exterior of the house was scraped, caulked, primed and painted in 2025 and a new air purifier was installed on the furnace. Don't miss this special home. Minutes to the NYS Thruway entrance right uptown and 2 hours out of NYC. Also, Close to interconnected rail trails for walking and biking throughout the City.
