A Rare 1900 Stone Gem in the Heart of Rhinebeck Village Step back in time while enjoying the best of village living in this extraordinary 1,660-square-foot stone home, built in 1900 with a level of integrity and artistry rarely seen today. Steeped in Hudson Valley history, this one-of-a-kind residence offers a flawless blend of historic soul and enduring quality. Unmatched Historic Character & Details • Historic Stone Architecture: Built with thick, hand-laid stone masonry that offers timeless beauty, natural insulation, and lasting durability. Naturally cool in the summer and warm in the winter. • Pristine Interior Finish: Featuring pristine, original plaster walls framed by smooth, timeless arched doorways. Golden oak wood plank flooring throughout the home. Original hand-worked wood trim runs through each room. • Fully Restored Wavy Glass Windows: Original wavy glass windows—complete with fully operational rope-and-pulley balance systems—flood every room with warm, textured light. The towering, vaulted staircase features an original double-hung window that illuminates the walls. • Authentic Craftsmanship: From the structural joinery to the fine architectural accents, every detail reflects turn-of-the-century building traditions. • Classic Comfort and Modern Convenience: This classic, comfortable retreat is move-in ready, with a 2-car garage, newly installed plumbing throughout the home, and an upgraded 200 amp electric service panel, this home is as trouble-free as it is beautiful. The Rhinebeck Lifestyle Tucked away in the desirable village of Rhinebeck, this home offers classic Hudson Valley charm just moments from local dining, boutique shopping, and historic landmarks. Whether you are seeking a turnkey historic retreat or an enduring village classic, this home is truly a rare find.
