Welcome to a private Hudson Valley estate where gracious living, exceptional amenities, and over seven acres of rolling lawns and mature woodland create a truly extraordinary lifestyle. Ideally located just minutes from historic Uptown Kingston, this exceptional property offers the tranquility of a country estate while remaining convenient to the restaurants, shops, outdoor recreation, and cultural attractions that define the Hudson Valley and Catskill region. It's a short stroll directly to the Hurley Rail Trail! Designed to accommodate both everyday living and large-scale entertaining, the residence offers an impressive variety of gathering spaces. A dramatic, sun-filled foyer with soaring cathedral ceilings creates a memorable first impression and serves as the centerpiece from which the home gracefully unfolds. Enjoy a warm and inviting music room with fireplace, an elegant living room with its own fireplace, a comfortable family room, and a beautifully appointed chef's kitchen featuring double ovens, a five-burner range, generous workspace, and direct access from the attached three-car garage for effortless daily convenience. Both a casual dining area and a formal dining room provide flexible entertaining options, while a spacious screened porch extends the living space outdoors and overlooks the property's peaceful surroundings. An elegant staircase leads to the second floor, where a stunning picture window fills the upper landing with natural light. The thoughtfully designed primary suite occupies its own private wing and features a generous full size closet and a beautifully appointed en-suite bath. Three additional bedrooms occupy the opposite wing, along with a spacious laundry room and a versatile suite complete with its own full bath and a plumbed kitchenette area. Ideal as guest accommodations, an in-law suite, private office, caretaker's quarters, or recreation space, this flexible area adapts to a variety of lifestyles. The finished lower level offers even more possibilities, including a large hobby room, a dedicated exercise room with sauna, and convenient garage-door access directly to the rear grounds. Comfort is provided year-round through multiple heating and cooling systems, including hydronic radiant floor heat in the lower level, an energy-efficient geothermal heat pump serving the main living areas, central air conditioning, and the peace of mind of a whole-house generator. Outdoor living is equally impressive. A large fenced lawn provides abundant space for recreation, while the inviting in-ground swimming pool, charming gazebo, and outdoor cooking area create the perfect setting for summer entertaining, family gatherings, or quiet evenings under the stars. Completing the property is a detached three car garage with a separate accessory dwelling unit (ADU), providing exceptional flexibility for extended family, guests, a property manager, a home office, or additional rental income. Presently leased for 1850, this income offsets property expenses. Tenant pays utilities and has use of laundry in garage. Offering an uncommon combination of privacy, versatility, and resort-style amenities just moments from Kingston and the heart of the Hudson Valley, 21 Easy Street is a place where everyday living feels like a permanent escape.
