Square Footage:	0
Taxes:	$4,550
Year Built:	1940

Tucked into more than 6.5 tranquil acres in low-tax Hurley, this cedar-sided Cape offers warmth, privacy, and a connection to its natural surroundings. Inside you will find well proportioned spaces, flowing from an ample dining room and open kitchen to a cozy living room warmed by a woodstove. The beautiful custom kitchen features solid wood cabinetry, Wolf and Subzero appliances, and striking quartzite countertops. Original Douglas fir floors extend throughout both levels, while radiant heat and central air conditioning provide year-round comfort. Up the custom walnut-and-maple staircase, four generously sized bedrooms await. A second-floor sun deck is accessible from two of the bedrooms, offering a peaceful place to enjoy the treetop setting. Outside, the property feels almost magical--quiet, private, and filled with the sounds of nature. Fall asleep listening to the owls and wake to the songbirds. An old quarry that holds water offers intriguing potential; the current owner envisioned transforming it into a natural woodland swimming pool. 325 Morgan Hill Road is a rare property where thoughtful craftsmanship meets the beauty and stillness of the forest. The finishing touch will be the addition of a front porch, and the seller can provide an architectural sketch and renderings to inspire its future design.
