Welcome to 88 Washington Avenue--a charm-filled 1920s classic offering nearly 2,000 square feet of character-rich living space in the heart of Kingston's historic Uptown Stockade District. Positioned just steps from George Washington Elementary School, this 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home beautifully blends preserved architectural detail with functional modern updates. Interior Highlights Preserved Character: Features rich fir hardwood floors, original wood trim, and a cozy wood-burning fireplace in the main living space. Kitchen: Outfitted with butcher block countertops, modern stainless steel appliances (under 7 years old), and an efficient open layout. Bathrooms: The upstairs bath retains its timeless appeal with an original clawfoot tub, paired with a newer sink/vanity and wood laminate flooring. Flex Space: Includes an extra den/office room on the main floor, perfect for remote work or a reading nook. Utility Updates: Upgraded replacement windows in key areas including the kitchen, basement, and first-floor bath. Full unfinished basement offers ample storage. Exterior & Grounds Screened Porch: Enjoy outdoor relaxing on the oversized, screened front porch. Garage & Parking: Includes a deep private driveway leading to a detached 2-car garage. Prime Uptown Location: Walkable to all the dining, shops, and farmers markets of the Stockade District. An exceptional opportunity to own a spacious, character-filled historic home in one of Kingston's most desirable neighborhood corridors.
