Set along one of New Paltz's most scenic country roads, 532 Springtown Road offers the kind of privacy and natural beauty that defines Hudson Valley living. A long, picturesque driveway leads through beautifully manicured grounds, where expansive lawns, mature plantings, and a thoughtful balance of cultivated and natural landscaping create a setting that feels both polished and wonderfully secluded. Take in the beautiful countryside scenery from a peaceful sitting area overlooking the gently flowing stream behind the property, adding another layer of tranquility to the landscape. The saltwater pool takes in pastoral views, while terraced decks provide plenty of room for outdoor dining, lounging, and effortless summer entertaining. The home itself is equally versatile. A recently renovated, oversized studio offers an inspiring space for yoga, fitness, art, or creative work. The flexible floor plan includes a spacious first-floor primary suite with an en-suite bath, two additional bedrooms and a full bath upstairs, a dedicated laundry room, and an oversized pantry. The well-appointed chef's kitchen is made for both everyday living and entertaining, with a generous breakfast bar, two ovens, and ample space to gather with family and friends. Ideally situated just a few miles from the charming town of New Paltz and nearby Rosendale, and just 90 minutes from the George Washington Bridge, the property puts some of the Hudson Valley's best experiences within easy reach. The Mohonk Preserve, Minnewaska Lake, and historic Huguenot Street, are all nearby, along with the iconic Trestle and Rail Trail, independent shops, restaurants, and a thriving arts and food scene. Private yet very connected, 532 Springtown Road is an inviting choice for a full-time residence, weekend retreat, or investment property in one of the Hudson Valley's most desirable locations.
