Set on over two wooded acres, this four-bedroom, two-bath Woodstock retreat offers privacy and comfort only five minutes from the Village Green. Available as a seasonal rental for stays up to one year, the home is suited for extended escapes, remote work, or enjoying a season upstate. Renovated in 2021, the great room brings the chef's kitchen, dining area, and living space together beneath vaulted ceilings. Four glass sliders fill the interior with natural light and open onto a wraparound deck and screened porch, creating indoor-outdoor living for morning coffee, outdoor dining, and quiet evenings beneath the stars. The flexible bi-level layout provides room to gather and recharge, with two primary bedrooms, guest rooms, two full baths, and a second living area. A wood-burning fireplace and vintage cast-iron stove add warmth and character, while room-by-room climate control ensures comfort throughout the seasons. Nearby, explore Overlook Mountain Trail and Sloan Gorge Preserve, along with swimming holes, scenic trails, and protected forests throughout the Catskills. Woodstock's Village Green offers independent shops, farm-to-table dining, galleries, live music, and year-round community events that reflect the town's creative spirit. Kingston is approximately 15 minutes away, while New York City is about two hours by car.
