Welcome to 21 Manor Place, a handsome three-bedroom home in Kingston's Roosevelt Park neighborhood, full of original character and ready for its next chapter. The house makes a strong first impression, with a distinctive hip roof and front and back porches freshly painted in a historic gray. Inside, the living room features a fireplace and original molding. The bedrooms are generously sized, with hardwood floors beneath the carpets, and a walk-in linen closet adds welcome storage. The bathroom has been refreshed with a new floor and vanity, a Bosch washer and dryer in the basement add convenience, and recent air sealing in the attic and basement improves energy efficiency year-round. The location is hard to beat: The house is on a quiet, beautiful street in the heart of Kingston. Loughran Park is right on the block, with a pavilion, a basketball court, a ballfield, a playground, and tennis and pickleball courts. The rail trail is nearby for biking, Lake Sophia offers swimming, and the coffee shops and restaurants of Downtown Kingston are all within easy reach. When you want to roam farther, the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge, Saugerties, and Woodstock are each a short drive away. A well-kept Kingston home with character to spare, in an unbeatable location.
