Year Built:	2022

A classic, modern farmhouse on five acres with a pond, perennial gardens, and a beautiful, sprawling backyard all on a dead end road. Newly constructed in 2022, the immaculate 4,000+ square foot home is perfectly executed. The interiors feel luxurious with wideboard white oak floors throughout and a vaulted 17ft ceiling in the main, open living space. There is a gas fireplace anchoring the room and the open kitchen features an extra large Liebherr refrigerator, a double oven and coffee station. There is a spacious pantry with additional storage and a wine fridge. You'll find a home office and formal dining room. The primary suite is on the main floor, large with sliding doors out to a private balcony and hot tub. The bath is ensuite with double vanities, radiant heated floors and a soaking tub and there are two walk-in closets. You'll find two additional bedrooms on the main level, both well sized and connected by a jack-and-jill bath. Upstairs is a large sitting area currently used as a play room, an additional bedroom and a full bath, as well as a flex space which the current owners use as sleeping quarters. The 2,500+ square foot basement has fabulous high ceilings making it super usable, it's set up as a home gym. A large screened in porch overlooks the backyard and the woods beyond, and there are raised garden beds ready for when the weather turns. An irrigation system has been installed which keep the gardens very low maintenance. There is an attached two car garage and the home sits in a neighborhood setting amongst other homes of a cohesive aesthetic. 11 Crimson Hill is a wonderful turnkey option just minutes to Rhinebeck village and Amtrak. Located in the Rhinebeck School District it is perfect for year round or weekend living.
