Set at the end of a long driveway atop a tree-lined hill, this expansive property offers space, versatility, and exceptional privacy. The main residence features six bedrooms and three bathrooms, including two bedrooms and two full bathrooms on the main floor, along with an inviting open-concept layout designed for comfortable everyday living and entertaining. An attached two-car garage provides added convenience, while the full unfinished basement--with impressive high ceilings--offers outstanding potential for future finished living space, subject to town approval. The property also features a seller-owned Tesla battery system with solar panels, offering valuable energy resilience. An outdoor wood burner can heat the entire main house and provide hot water, adding another practical energy option. A separate two-bedroom, two-bath home--with its own electric service and separate propane heating system--is currently rented on a month-to-month basis, offering immediate income potential. The tenant is in good standing, has a reliable rental history, and would welcome the opportunity to stay. Additional features include a fenced paddock currently used by the owners for horses and a portable garage shelter for extra covered storage. Explore the property's scenic trails to discover peaceful, wooded clearings and a distinctive cordwood house tucked among the trees. Bordering the property is the approximately 3,000-acre Bluestone Wild Forest, a year-round recreational destination known for mountain biking, hiking, fishing, and paddling. This one-of-a-kind retreat presents a rare opportunity to enjoy privacy, natural beauty, flexibility, energy independence, and exceptional access to the outdoors.
