This spacious 4-bedroom, 1-bath home offers classic character and plenty of flexible living space. A covered front porch welcomes you into a bright foyer that opens to generous living and dining rooms with plenty of natural light, followed by the kitchen. With four bedrooms all located upstairs, the home offers a practical layout with plenty of flexibility for today's needs. Outside, a spacious paved rear area offers room for outdoor seating, entertaining, or additional parking. Additional highlights include a newer roof and leased solar panels. Ideally situated just blocks from Kingston's historic Stockade District, with local cafés, boutiques, restaurants, and the Trailways Bus Station nearby. The Kingston Waterfront and Ashokan Rail Trail are also within a short drive, putting some of the area's popular destinations within easy reach.
