Set within the historic Thompson House in the heart of Rhinebeck Village, this sun-filled, two-level apartment offers the charm of a historic residence with the appeal of village living just steps from your door. Occupying the second and third floors, this one-bedroom, one-bath home features a spacious, inviting layout with the bedroom privately situated on the upper level. The main level features a generous living room with hardwood floors and an adjoining dining area with large windows overlooking the front yard and Livingston Street. The kitchen offers natural wood cabinetry, ample storage, and a new range. A windowed full bathroom features a pedestal sink, beadboard wainscoting, and a tiled tub/shower. Upstairs, the bedroom enjoys its own private level, with hardwood floors and original architectural character. Located just a short stroll from the center of Rhinebeck Village, the apartment offers easy access to its excellent restaurants, cafés, locally owned shops and boutiques, and cultural favorites including Oblong Books and Upstate Films. The seasonal farmers market and vibrant year-round community add to the appeal of living in one of the Hudson Valley's most sought-after villages. Bard College, Red Hook, and Tivoli are all nearby, while the Rhinecliff Amtrak station is just five minutes away, providing convenient train access to and from New York City.
