Year Built:	2004

Welcome to 118 Hudson Street, a beautifully appointed home with views of the Hudson River, and moments from the charm of Saugerties Village, Kingston, and the highly anticipated Soho Farmhouse Hudson Valley in Rhinebeck slated to open in 2028. Built in 2004, this spacious residence offers approximately 2,700 square feet of living space, with 4 bedrooms and 3.5 bathrooms, creating an inviting setting for comfortable everyday living and entertaining; or a profitable investment property (annual revenue available upon request). Renovations and interiors were custom designed by a local interior decorator with no detail overlooked. Stunning chef's kitchen with a Viking range, beautiful custom kitchen island, and walk-in pantry are some highlights. The living room features double height ceilings, views of the Hudson River, and goregous gas fireplace. The real showstopper is the landscaped and completely fenced in backyard with a heated inground pool, lounge seating, outdoor dining, hot tub, and an additional covered outdoor entertaining area with a wood burning fireplace for those chilly nights that leads to a wet bar found on the main floor. All furnishing and decor are included in the sale making this truly a turn-key experience.
