An early 1900s Foursquare-style home with charm and big personality seeking rejuvenation! With original details in place, the layout offers opportunities to upgrade to a 2+ bathroom home and modernize while keeping the old-world character alive. The living and dining rooms are connected with wide pocket doors allowing for openness or separation, as desired. Hardwood floors, a stained-glass transom, and bay windows give these rooms warmth and light. A large, screened porch to the back yard extends the living space in the warmer seasons. The large kitchen with a breakfast nook/pantry leaves abundant room for re-invention and functionality for today's cook. Find your way upstairs via the spacious entry foyer by the enclosed rocking chair front porch - about 260 sq ft. Three bedrooms, two with bay windows, and den, and a shared bath on the second floor. The full walk-up attic can be easily finished to add office/studio/family space. Situated in Kingston Midtown on a low-traffic street off Broadway within convenient proximity of restaurants, shopping and fun things to do. The home needs work and conveys "as is."
