Classic Character, Great Bones & Convenient Kingston Location! Welcome to 298 Hasbrouck Avenue in Kingston, NY! This charming 1930s home offers approximately 1,581 square feet of living space, featuring 3 bedrooms, 1 full bathroom, and the character and craftsmanship of an older home. The home offers great bones, solid construction, and plenty of potential for someone looking to add their own personal touches while enjoying the charm of a classic home. The main floor features impressive 9-foot ceilings, adding to the sense of space and character. Outside, you'll appreciate the long paved driveway providing ample off-street parking, along with a detached two-car garage — a great bonus in this convenient city location! Location is another great feature! Situated in the heart of Kingston, you'll enjoy convenient access to shopping, restaurants, local parks, the historic Rondout waterfront, and the many attractions throughout the Hudson Valley. Kingston offers a wonderful mix of history, arts, dining, and outdoor recreation, with the Catskills and scenic Hudson River just a short trip away. Commuters will appreciate easy access to the New York State Thruway (I-87), connecting you to the greater Hudson Valley, Albany, and the New York City region. Amtrak service is available at the nearby Rhinecliff station, with additional Metro-North service from Poughkeepsie, providing rail connections to New York City. Whether you're looking for a home with character, an opportunity to build equity, or a property in a convenient Hudson Valley location, this home is worth a closer look! A home with character, solid bones, and an opportunity to make it your own!
