Year Built:	1928

Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in Uptown Kingston, this beautifully updated 1920s home offers privacy and a wonderful location just a short walk from the historic Stockade District. With 2,270 square feet of living space, four bedrooms, and two full bathrooms, the home is offered fully and tastefully furnished. Three of the bedrooms are furnished as sleeping quarters, while the fourth is set up as a home office. A large, light-filled foyer opens into the home, with original hardwood floors and woodwork. The living room has big windows overlooking the leafy yard, and the adjoining dining area opens to the kitchen, which has soapstone countertops, a center island with seating for three, a farmhouse sink, an induction cooktop, a subway tile backsplash, and a Bosch dishwasher. A large mudroom/laundry room and pantry are conveniently located off the kitchen. The main-floor bedroom suite has a private bathroom with a Grohe thermostatic shower and Japanese bidet toilet. Upstairs are two additional bedrooms, a room furnished as a home office, and a full bathroom with double vanity. A staircase leads to a spacious finished attic with vaulted wood ceilings, skylights, exposed brick, and built-in shelving. Currently furnished as a comfortable sitting and media room, it's a wonderful additional space for reading, relaxing, or working from home. A deep front porch and private, wooded backyard with terraced gardens offer lovely places to spend time outdoors. Additional features include off-street parking and a large shed. The home is within easy walking distance of the Kingston Farmers Market, Rough Draft Books & Brews, and Uptown's many restaurants, cafés, and shops. A lovely place to call home, with the convenience of Uptown Kingston just around the corner. A 4,500 security deposit due at lease signing. Application fee is 20 for a background and credit check. Tenant pays electricity, gas heat, and internet/cable. Trash collection, water/sewer are included in the rent.
