Celebrate the centennial of this circa 1925 cottage reconstructed and curated by esteemed interior design pro Steed Hale. Form meets function in the open concept floor plan that maximizes efficiency of space in the kitchen/dining room/living room. A full bank of floor-to-ceiling windows bring the outside in, looking out over an expansive outdoor deck, groomed grounds, outbuildings and fire pit. The oversized quartz kitchen island with built-in stovetop and barstool seating for up to 7 anchors cooking and entertaining. More quartz, a marble backsplash, stainless steel appliances and country sink complete the kitchen area. Choose among intimate sitting areas in the rest of room, nicely appointed with smart TV and gas burning fireplace sharing the far wall with decorative white birch firewood. Unwind in the warmth of wide plank white pine flooring and throw rugs throughout the rooms--except for the marble floors in the two spa-like full baths. Two well-proportioned bedrooms are complimented by a third flex room, a converted porch that can serve as an office, a den and/or an extra sleeping area. Mini splits in each room supply individually controlled heating and cooling for every season. A large outdoor entertaining area encourages al fresco grilling and dining, lounging in Adirondack chairs, soaking in a bathtub in the sun or under the stars and building fires in your choice of a portable fireplace or fire pit. The property also has one structure for storage and a detached one car garage with separate curb cut and parking--and the potential for additional renovation. Looking to move right in? Furniture/contents package available. Coveted Short Term Rental Permit transferable to new buyer. THE ideal location, in close proximity to all Woodstock and the Hudson River Valley-Catskill Mountain Region have offer--world-class natural beauty, outdoor recreational resources, arts, live music and farm-to-table cuisine all in one very special place. This is why we live here. Now you can, too!
