This stylish cape in the desirable Roosevelt Park subdivision is loaded with character and has a backyard that will have you feeling like you are vacationing in The Hamptons! Upstairs are three bedrooms, two with massive walk in closets, and a full bathroom. Downstairs, the living room dons a working wood burning fireplace, custom built ins and an oversized doorway leading to the open kitchen and dining area. The kitchen is newly renovated with gorgeous granite countertops and new Maytag stainless steel appliances. Off the kitchen is an enclosed porch which overlooks the incredible backyard that was designed for Sunday Fundays and everything in between! The inground pool has a heater so you can get the most use possible, and has underwater lights that will change the color of the water to whatever mood you're feeling. The vinyl privacy fence illuminates at night from lights along the landscaping, and will keep your pets safely contained. The pool, fence, and stamped concrete patio are all three years old and in excellent condition. But wait...can't forget about the finished basement which adds ample square footage for a family room, workout area, or a place for your guests to crash. There is a second full bathroom in the basement for convenience. This home has so much to offer, is move in ready & awaits its new owners!
